

Approved Vendors

Nick Sekela (Historic Clothiers)- You will be okay purchasing virtually anything and all items within our uniform guidelines from this vendor. While some sutlers may specialize in either uniforms or accoutrements, Nick makes both with equal excellence and authenticity. <http://www.njsekela.com/>

Wambaugh White and Company- Good source for uniforms and knapsack stuffers. <http://www.wwandcompany.com/>

Richmond Depot- Source for shirts and Confederate uniforms. <http://www.richmonddepot.com/>

Galla Rock- Good source for Federal Sack Coats. <http://gallarock.com/>

Chris Sullivan (Stony Brook Company)- Good source for federal trousers. <http://www.stonybrookcompany.com/>

Missouri Boot and Shoe- Good source for leathers, brogans and packs. <http://www.missouribootandshoe.com/>

Provisional Supply Company- leathers and canteens. <http://www.provisionalsupply.com/>

C&D Jarnagin- leathers, tinware, brogans, groundcloths, ponchos, rifles, bayonets, canteens. <http://www.jarnaginco.com/>

Tim Bender Hats (TP&H Trading Company)- you guessed it, hats. <http://www.benderhats.com/>

Dirty Billy Hats- More hats. <http://www.dirtybillyshats.com/>

S&S Sutlery of Gettysburg- federal haversacks, socks, haversack stuffers. Most items sold by this sutlery are top quality. <http://www.ss-sutler.com/products.html>

Authentic Campaigner's Buy and Sell Forum- Great place to find second hand gear at reduced prices. For the most part, the goods available through this forum are top quality. Anything referenced as being made by N.J. Sekela or C.J. Daley is generally excellent. Otherwise look for the vendors listed above. <http://www.authentic-campaigner.com/forum/forumdisplay.php?21-Wanting-to-Sell>
